Joel Alarcon – September 21, 2024

Don't be surprised if Joel Alarcon stops by your table at the North Elk Coffee House in September, entertaining you up close and personal with his exquisite violin playing. Joel's theme for the evening is Jazz. He is bringing a jazz combo playing onstage and off! Last season, Joel performed solo on our stage, with an eclectic program including Broadway and Movie themes, classical melodies, and an Irish set to celebrate St. Patrick's Day.

Originally from Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Joel graduated from the National School of Music in Honduras. He moved to the USA to study violin. He earned his second Master's degree in violin performance at the University of Delaware. Joel has performed internationally throughout Central America, Brazil, and China. He has played with notable artists and groups who perform in a wide range of styles, including: Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg, The Trans-Siberian Orchestra, the Pointer Sisters, 6-Wired Ensemble, Ricky Skaggs, Sir James Galway, Charley Pride, and Dionne Warwick.

Joel Alarcon is an Adjunct Violin Instructor at Cecil College, a Violin Instructor at St. Mary Anne's String Studio, and Director of Music at St. Mary Anne's Episcopal Church. Please help us welcome Joel back to our stage in September!
